Come be a part of this fun program offered by Wayland School Community Programs! Beginning in October of 2019, we will be offering 1st through 5th graders the opportunity to sing with children from all of Wayland. This program will include 13 classes, a full group dress rehearsal, and a concert in one Winter Session from October through January. The class times and locations are as follows:

Happy Hollow
Music Room
Tuesdays
2:30 - 3:30

Loker
Theater Stage
Wednesdays*
1:15 - 2:15
Early Release Days
11:30-12:30

Claypit Hill
Music Room
Thursdays
2:30 - 3:30

Students from all three elementary schools are welcome to register for whichever day works best, regardless of the school they attend. Students will not miss any rehearsal due to travel time as a fifteen minute dismissal grace period is factored into the above class times. Students are welcome to bring a peanut-free snack to enjoy during this time. All participants town wide come together for one full group dress rehearsal and concert.

Musical Director of Wayland's Little Local Vocals Kid's Chorus

Patrice Buckley is a graduate of the Music Education program at Boston University. There she studied voice and was part of the Concert Chorus and Symphonic Chorus, as well as a featured soloist.

Outside of the classical training BU offers, Patrice was the President and Musical Director of the award-winning a cappella group, The Allegrettos. She is a distinguished pianist and organist as well.

In recent years, she has taught general music classes to elementary students in kindergarten through fifth grade at all three of the Wayland Elementary Schools. Children joining this chorus will not only grow in musicality, but will have fun too.

Patrice looks forward to seeing familiar faces and meeting new students through Wayland's Little Local Vocals Kid's Chorus!
